New Yellow Magic Publishers

07/31/2008 - Yellow Magic would like to welcome our newest Publishers to license Yellow Magic software. They are Suriname Yellow Pages in South America and Tanzania Yellow Pages in Africa.

It is always exciting to work with other companies around the globe.

Suriname, officially the Republic of Suriname (traditionally spelled Surinam by the English who founded the first colony at Marshall's Creek, along the Suriname River, but the Dutch spelling is more widely accepted), is a country in northern South America. The Dutch were some of the earliest traders who visited this area along with other parts of South America.

The country is the smallest sovereign state in terms of area and population in South America, and the official language is Dutch. The capital, where we will be training, is Paramaribo, located on the Atlantic Ocean coast of South America.

The directories are published with classified headings and indexes in four languages: Dutch, English, Portuguese, and Chinese.

Tanzania, Africa, officially the United Republic of Tanzania, is home to what many geologists consider the tallest 'true' mountain in the world, Mt Kilimanjaro. Whether it is the first, second, third or fourth tallest, it is one of the most majestic mountains in the world with one of the most beautiful cities in the country, which lies at the base of this mountain, Moshi. Swahili is the lingua franca of much of East Africa, but there are several indigenous dialects in use.

Tanzania includes what was once known as Tanganyika and the island of Zanzibar, which is how it arrived at the blended new name, Tanzania. Dodoma is the country's political capital, shared with Dar es Salam, "Abode of Peace," which is the Arabic spelling for Yer-u-saleem, formally Mzizima, and the largest city in Tanzania. This is the city where Tanzania Yellow Pages is headquartered, located on a massive natural harbor on the eastern India Ocean, coast of Africa.
